A Biography of the Signers

OF THE

Declaration of Independence,

Accompanied with Plates.

To which will be annexed a History of the Proceedings of Congress, during the passage of the Law, and the Declaration itself, with the fac simile Engravings of the Signatures.

By JOHN SANDERSON.

TO THE PUBLIC.

When we consider the personal qualities of the statesmen whose names are affixed to the Declaration of Independence, the perilous occasion which demanded the exercise of their wisdom and deliberation, and the influence of their councils on the interests of mankind, we must acknowledge that very rarely a more imposing spectacle has been offered to the world, and we shall seek in vain in the annals of nations, for an event more worthy of commemoration, and of being cherished forever in the hearts of a grateful and generous people. The love of independence is interwoven with the frame and constitution of the human mind. It is almost the first sentiment that animates the infant's features in the cradle; and amongst all the actions and enterprizes of man, none has awaked into activity a greater exertion of the virtuous energies of his nature, none has excited a greater warmth of veneration, and has more imperious claims upon our gratitude, than resistance to tyranny and political aggression.

In all republican states the first tribute of genius has been paid to the patriot or the hero who has promoted the cause of liberty and maintained the independence and dignity of man. The animated canvas and breathing marble have rescued his features from the grasp of death, and the pen of the historian has inscribed the achievements to the imperishable records of fame. It would indeed be no favorable prognostic of the perpetuity of our republican institutions to discover an insensibility to the obligations we owe the memory of the illustrious patrons of American freedom. They have raised us, by their magnanimity, from the arbitrary dominion of a foreign power, to the distinguished elevation of a sovereign and independent people; they have asserted and maintained the imprescriptible rights of humanity by the "mutual pledge of their pledge of their lives, their fortunes and their sacred honors;" and, as long as virtue holds her empire in the hearts of their successors, the example of these generous benefactors will not be lost to the world; their names will not pass away nor be forgotten, or their glorious deeds be confounded in the common and casual transaction of life.—Ingratitude is a vice that in nations, as well as individuals, indicates the last degree of degeneracy and corruption; it is a vice that implies the absence of every virtue; it was in the age of Caligula that the name of the Scipios was proscribed, that the state of Brutus brought death on its possessor.

"The glory of our ancestors is the light of posterity," and the homage of the living cannot be offered to the merits of the illustrious dead with an effectual or sterile admiration. Great and splendid actions will seldom be achieved by men who have humble or ordinary objects in prospect. It is by contemplating the life and character of those who are marked out from the multitude by their eminent qualities, that we become emulous of their virtues and their renown. The trophies of Miltiades interrupted the sleeps of Themistocles; and Theseus, hearing the exploits of Hercules, was fired with his spirit, and became the successful rival of his fame. The rude savage of the desert listens with rapture to the deeds of his ancestors, and hangs around his hut the emblems of his father's valour.

More need not be said to enforce the utility of the publication we have undertaken, and which we now submit to the patronage of our fellow-citizens, with a hope, that from the liberality of their encouragement, we shall be able to present it to the public worthy of their approbation. We must depend for the illustration of many of the characters of our biography, upon the generosity of their surviving relatives and friends, to furnish us with whatever interesting materials may be in their possession; for which, with our grateful acknowledgments, we promise a copy of the entire work as a compensation.

CONDITIONS.

I. The work will be published in numbers or half volumes of 200 pages, octavo, and contained in ten numbers. To the first will be prefixed an appropriate frontispiece—and the work will be commenced with the declaration of independence, with engraved fac similes of the signatures, and a compendious detail of the proceedings of congress, during the passage of the law. Each of the lives, unless when it is impracticable, will be preceded by a likeness of the person, engraved by the best artists in the United States.

II. It will be printed on fine paper, made expressly for the purpose, and delivered to subscribers at two dollars and fifty cents per number, payable on delivery.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 1819.

Capt. JOHN H. ELTON, of the Columbus, 74, arrived on Friday last, at Strothers' hotel, in Washington.

By the Atlantic, Captain Matlack, from Liverpool, a friend has received and furnished us with with the intelligence, that inland business is improving in England, and that the Revolutionary spirit lately evinced in the manufacturing districts has in a great degree subsided. The cloth and stuff weavers have now pretty regular employment.—Bombazetts have been particularly in great demand, and the wool of which the article is manufactured has risen in price from 30 to 50 shillings per pack, or equal to an advance of about 60 per cent on the raw materials. [N. Y. Com. Adv.

The brig President, Clark, has arrived at New Bedford, in 48 days from the Western Islands, with 500 barrels oil. Captain C. informs that he put into Fayal 21st August, where a Portuguese India ship had just arrived, which had had an engagement with a Patriot privateer. There were two India ships in company, each mounting 22 guns; the privateer attacked them both at once, and captured one; the other escaped into Fayal, with the loss of 9 men killed and 5 wounded.

The General Assembly of Rhode Island adjourned on Saturday 6th inst. During the session the Assembly granted the petitions of several convicts, for liberation from prison. Among the number of these applicants for legislative clemency was James Billington, on whom sentence of death was passed for burglary, in Oct. 1815. This punishment was commuted by the General Assembly for imprisonment during life—and the prisoner has remained in close confinement, without fire or candle light, subsisting on scanty food, for more than four years. In consequence of the severity of his punishment and the impoverished and dependent state of his family, the Assembly have at last consented to his release. [Rhode Island American.

From the Norfolk Herald.

The private armed brig Huntress, captain WILSON, which arrived here a short time since, under the Venezuelian flag, has been libelled by the Collector of this District for a violation of the 68th and 103d sections of the Act of Congress entitled "An act for the collection of duties on impost and tonnage." The brig was on the eve of her departure hence for Baltimore, when upon information leading to a suspicion of the fact, the Collector sent an officer to search her, and the following articles were found on board, which had not been reported in the manifest, viz. sundry casks of wine, demijohns of Cognac brandy, cases of gin, boxes of Spanish playing cards, boxes of Spanish bridles, seroons of garlic and medicinal herbs, &c.

MUTINY AND MURDER.

It is stated in an Amsterdam paper, of the 5th of September, that Captain Nunnings, of the ship African, who had arrived there from St. George d'Elmina, informs that a month before his departure, a part of the crew of the Three Friends, Captain C. Fol, bound from Pernambuco and George d'Elmina to Amsterdam, mutinied eight leagues from George d'Elmina, and, after having murdered the captain and pilot, blew up the ship. Four of the crew, not being of the number of the mutineers, saved themselves by flight, and three of them (the fourth having died on the coast) were conveyed in the African to Amsterdam.

Quebec, Oct. 28.

Mr. Gourlay, whose name has been so often mentioned in connection with the proceedings in Upper Canada during the last two years, sailed from this port in the beginning of this week, for Liverpool.

INTERNAL NAVIGATION.

A merchant at Olean, (otherwise called Hamilton Village) in the county of Cattaraugus, New-York, advertises for ten or twelve boat men, to go in boats from that place to New-Orleans.

We have seen a specimen of very fine marble obtained from the bed of Broad River.—This discovery is among the earliest fruits of our internal improvements.—The stores of our mineralogical riches are yet buried in the depths of earth, in the upper parts of the state—and we expect to see more of them brought to light by the aid of the liberal appropriation, made by the Legislature, for internal improvement. We anticipate the period as near at hand, when the capitalist will find sufficient inducement to explore these sources of wealth, and transport to this metropolis, those materials for building which will contribute both to use and embellishment. POTATOES.

The quantity of potatoes exported from this place the last two months to Saturday 23d inst. amount to 97,500 bushels. The exports of the last week has been equal to any preceding week; and they are now coming in plentifully. The exports this season will probably be 150,000 bushels. The price opened at 25 cents, rose to 30, and has settled at 27. At this rate over 40,000 dollars will be left with the farmers in this vicinity for this article the present season.

FARMERS' BANK OF READING.

A meeting of the stockholders was held on Monday last, and we are informed that a thorough investigation of the concerns of said institution took place. It was agreed that upon the renewal of notes due the bank, for two successive terms, 10 per cent should be paid in, which will reduce the amount of notes in circulation to about 70,000 dollars, and enable the bank to resume its functions. Should this, however, not be sufficient, the stockholders have agreed to pay an additional instalment of five dollars on their shares respectively. This last measure will no doubt enable the bank to revert to specie payments, and effectually to re-establish its credit.

Danville, (Pa.) Nov. 3.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the Northumberland, Union and Columbia bank, held at Milton, on Monday last, it was unanimously agreed that said bank should cease its operations and wind up its concerns as soon as practicable.

DARING ROBBERY.

On Saturday night, the 23d inst. some villains entered the silver-smith shop of John H. Wise, in this borough, and robbed it of between 2 and 300 watches, of various descriptions, with several other articles not yet known. Between 9 and 10 o'clock on Sunday morning, the robbery was discovered, and the citizens immediately scoured the surrounding country, but without any other effect than that of finding a few watches very much injured.

A proclamation, dated October 6th, of Charles William Maxwell, Governor of the Islands of St. Christopher, Nevis, Auguilla, and the Virgin Islands, authorizes the importation therein, for the period of six months from the 6th of October, in all vessels of all nations: Flour, bread, biscuit, rice, beans, oats, corn, corn meal, live stock, horses, mules, horned cattle, roots and fruits of all kinds; boards, planks, scantling, shingles, staves, heading and hoops. It is further more permitted for vessels importing any of the aforesaid articles, to export sugar to the value of one third of the amount so imported, and of rum and molasses for the remainder. Provided always, that the value of such articles so imported shall be ascertained by the oath of the master or supercargo of the vessel importing the same, or by the purchasers thereof, before such vessel shall be allowed to come to an entry; and the value of the cargo to be exported, be ascertained in the same manner before the collector and comptroller be allowed to clear out such vessels. Salt and lime juice may also be exported from the said Virgin Islands.

AWFUL CONFLAGRATION.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman in Wilmington, (N. C.) to a respectable mercantile house in Baltimore, dated 4th November, 1819.

"It is with the deepest regret that we have to inform you of a dreadful conflagration that has taken place in this unfortunate town; time will not admit of a particular description—I shall briefly therefore state that a fire broke out about half past two this morning in Dock-street, near the river, extending up both sides of the street to Second street; it extended from thence to Orange-street, from thence along the north side of Orange-street west to the river, from thence up the river north to south side of Market-street wharf; thence east on the south side of Market-street to Front-street; across Front-street east to Second-street, and thence on the west side of said street to the north side of Dock-street, laying in ashes every house, store and warehouse, in those four squares, except the warehouse occupied by A. Taylor, and the lower brick house belonging to H. Kelly, Esq and this was done in the space of five hours!—The flames spread so rapidly owing to the extreme and long period of dry weather we have had, that though considerable exertions were made, and some houses blown up, it was impossible to stop their progress; the wind was at first about S. W. but providentially veered to the N. W. which arrested the fire. Had it crossed to the north of Market-street, I do not see what could have saved the town. I am sorry to say that the Presbyterian Church, lately built by the inhabitants, a very handsome and ornamental edifice, was burnt to the ground. Several families were driven into the street, having saved barely their clothing, and the distress among the poor is dreadful; and it is to be hoped will excite the commisseration and liberality of the benevolent and the charitable. The amount of loss it is impossible to ascertain, or even to conjecture; a considerable quantity of goods, W. I. produce and furniture burnt and destroyed. Our situation being remote, we providentially escaped. Very few vessels in the harbor were injured—both the banks, episcopal church, court-house, townhall and steam saw-mill escaped. You will probably see a more detailed account in a few days.

GALE AT ST. MARTIN'S.

We have been favored with the St. Thomas Times of the 15th ult. from which we extract the particulars of the awful destruction committed by the late gale at St. Martin's. Accounts have been heretofore published, of the injury experienced at other islands in the West-Indies, from the ravages of the same hurricane; but from the following it appears that St. Martin's has suffered not less severely.

PARTICULARS

Of the disasters experienced at St. Martin's, by the late Hurricane.

On Monday the 20th September, at meridian, in the island of St. Martin's, it instantaneously became very calm, accompanied by a severe ground sea; at 12 o'clock at night it blew a pretty fresh breeze from the northward, which continned increasing. On Tuesday, at 9 o'clock in the morning, it blew from the N. W.—at 12 o'clock same day, it blew from the S. W.—and from 5 o'clock, P. M. it blew due S. which continued until 4 o'clock on Wednesday morning, when the weather began to abate.

From 5 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon until the same hour on Wednesday morning, it blew with such a degree of violence that nothing could withstand its force; men, women and children, bereft of shelter, with not a single suit of linen to cover their nakedness, or wherewithal to satisfy their hunger, trees torn up by the roots, houses blown from their foundations, some of which were blown into the sea and pond; one house in particular, situated over the pond, was taken up wholly by the wind, wherein was the manager and several negroes—it was lifted from its basis upwards of twenty feet high, and fortunately, on its descent, fell into a spot, which had been originally a cellar, and contained three or four feet water, in consequence of which those in the house sustained no injury.

An iron six pounder, with iron carriage, was blown from Fort Amsterdam half way to Fort William, the distance of about three-quarters of a mile—and a cart, with iron axle tree, was blown from Gov. Rick's estate to Mr. Dencker's, (about a quarter of a mile.)

Simpson's Bay was almost entirely destroyed, there remaining in that town but 5 houses; one of the buildings washed away by the sea contained 19 persons. In the middle of the original situation of the town there is a channel left of about 30 feet in breadth and 7 feet deep. During the gale there were three shocks of an earthquake, which, it is supposed, did equally as much damage as the wind or sea.

The following is a list of the damage done in the Dutch quarter:

By the schr. Zephyr, capt. Ripley, arrived at this port on Saturday, we have received Gibraltar papers to Oct. 2.

A splendid military fete took place at Gibraltar, Oct. 25th, on the presentation of a new stand of colors to the 64th regiment stationed there. Gibraltar, Oct. 2.

The progress of the malady unfortunately appears to have been more rapid at Cadiz than at the isle of Leon, as one of the Madrid Gazette, received last week, spoke of a few cases only in the hospitals and private houses, and the accounts which came to hand on Wednesday, state them to have amounted to the beginning of this week to several thousands, and the number of daily deaths to upwards of 60. The conduct of the bishop on this trying occasion is truly exemplary—he is constantly with the sick, to whom he administers in person, the sacraments and every assistance in his power. We are likewise concerned to find, that the fever has further spread to Seville, and to several other towns and villages in the province.—In the capital, however, the letters of the latest date, represent it as still confined to the ward of Santa Cruz; but the alarm was so great that the courts of justice and the holy office had been shut up; the authorities whose presence were not required in the city, were preparing to leave it, and upwards of 20,000 persons had already withdrawn to the town bordering of Estramadura. The head quarters of the expedition (for South America) were at Arcos, and the troops were in the neighborhood of the mountains of Ronda.

A royal decree issued at Madrid on the 16th of August, after a short preamble, stating that many Jews from this garrison, Tetuan and other ports, land in Spain, particularly at Cadiz, Algeziras and Seville, present themselves with passports from the civil authorities before the tribunals of the inquisition, requesting to be admitted to abjure their errors, directs the captain general, governors and magistrates of the ports and frontier towns, and all concerned, to prevent any Hebrew from landing, or proceeding into the interior, without his majesty's previous permission, or due notice being given to the officers of the inquisition.

The remains of the late king and queen of Spain having been brought from Italy to the Peninsula, were conveyed to the Escurial last month.

LATEST FROM LIVERPOOL.

By the arrival this forenoon of the ship Atlantic, Matlack, we have received a Liverpool paper of the 2d of October, from which we have made several extracts; but, except the two following articles, there appears to be nothing of much interest.

"On the 21st ult. at Paris, was delivered the duchess de Berry of a daughter, who was baptized by the names of Louisa Maria Thereasa D'Artois Mademoiselle. Though the present is absolutely the duchess of Berry's third accouchement in little more than two years, and she is only nineteen years of age, it is presumed that herself and daughter are likely to do well.

"Three actions for crim. con. are announced for the next November term, in which the officers of the life guards stand conspicuous. In the first, the parties are the lady of a viscount heir apparent to an earldom, and a lieutenant in the army. In the second, captain P. of the life guards, and Mrs. W. the wife of a lieutenant. The two lovers are off to France; and in the third, Mrs. H. the wife of an officer, formerly of the life guards, with a half pay officer. In this last case, in which the lady resided at Seven Oaks, Kent, the husband arrived most mal-a-propos, and gave them a sound thrashing."

Mr. Kean closed his engagement at our theatre on Friday last week; and after he has fulfilled those in Scotland, it is his intention to embark for America. We understand, that the most pressing and liberal invitations have been made to him while in this town, by Mr. Elliston, to return to Drury Lane theatre; but to all of which he has returned a negative.

In the Magnet which arrived here from N. York this week, there were not less than 160 passengers, who had emigrated during the last and present year, and who have now returned to their native country.

LATEST DATES FROM EUROPE.

The London papers by the brig Henrico, are engaged in discussions respecting Manchester meeting, and of a lord mayor of London.

The negotiations carried on heretofore by the English and Spanish government for the supply of nine millions of dollars, from the South American provinces, have terminated. The specie required by Great Britain, will be allowed to be transmitted to England, in British ships from la Vera Cruz, but not until the ensuing year. London, Oct. 2.

Hamburg papers to the 24th ult. were received this morning. An article from Vienna states, that the ministers who lately met to discuss the affairs of the general confederation, are to assemble in that capital on or about the 20th of the ensuing month. Another levy of 80,000 men has been ordered for the Austrian service, while 4,000 horses have arrived from Holstein for the heavy cavalry, and the artillery now exceeds its proper complement. By the accounts from Stockholm we learn that a very great mercantile house stopped payment there on the 7th of last month; and that the king of Sweden was expected in that capital, from his recent tour, about the 26th. Letters from Berlin say, it is the intention of his Prussian majesty to erect a monument to gen. Blucher, which is afterwards to be guarded by two invalids, in honor to his memory and merits.—By the last advices from Dresden, it appears that the Saxon court was expected to return there towards the end of last month, and that the ambassadors of France and Austria would arrive at nearly the same time.

Frankfort, Sept 20.

It is understood that Sandt will be tried by the Central Tribunal which is to be established at Mentz. This tribunal will be under the influence of the great powers, it also to take cognizance of the Prussian conspiracy.

A letter from an officer of the army, dated at Fernandina, Amelia Island, Oct. 30, to a gentleman in Washington, has the following postscript—"By the arrival of the mail this instant, from Augustine, news had been received that a vessel from the Havana had arrived at that place, bringing the information that 1500 troops were to sail from the latter to the former place in a few days, and that the governor had put in close confinement the captain of the vessel, for giving publicity to the report."

To the politeness of James Buchanan, Esq. British Consul, we are indebted for the following Circular. [N.Y.Gaz.

CIRCULAR TO HIS MAJESTY'S CONSULS.

Foreign Office, Aug. 13, 1819.

SIR—His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased by his Order in Council of the 28th day of May last, herein inclosed, to sanction certain modifications of the laws which regulate the colonial trade of Great Britain, so far as they affect the Island of Mauritius.

It is therein provided that from the date of that Order, British vessels arriving at the Mauritius from a country in amity with His Majesty, and laden with the produce of such country, shall be admitted into the ports of that colony and be allowed to dispose of their cargoes, and to export to any such country the produce of the Mauritius, or merchandize which may have been legally imported into the said colony of Mauritius; and it is further provided that vessels belonging to the subjects of any state which may allow British vessels to trade in the manner described, shall be permitted to trade in like manner between the Mauritius and the ports of such state.

I have already communicated that order to the Ministers of Foreign Powers resident at this Court; but as a considerable time may elapse before His Royal Highness's Government can receive information of the measures which Foreign Governments may think proper to adopt, with reference to the said order, it has become necessary to frame some arrangements by which the Governor of the Mauritius shall be enabled to give effect to His Royal Highness's Commands. That officer has accordingly been instructed not to admit any foreign vessel into the ports of the Mauritius, unless she be provided with a certificate from His Majesty's Consul resident at the Port where she may have taken out her clearance, stating that regulations, corresponding with the Prince Regent's order of the 28th of May, had been promulgated by the Government of the Country where such Consul may be residing.

I have therefore, to convey to you the Prince Regent's commands, that you do govern yourself in conformity with the instructions which His Royal Highness has thus commanded to be conveyed to the Governor of the Mauritius, and that you will take the proper steps to make this arrangement known to the authorities of the place in which you are resident.

I am, Sir, your most obedient, humble servant, CASTLEREAGH.

James Buchanan, Esq.
His Majesty's Consul, New-York.

MURDER OF A FEMALE.

A murder of a most shocking nature was perpetrated a few evenings since at a place called Chesford, within three miles of Leamington, Warwickshire, upon the body of Mrs. Dormer, the wife of an opulent and respectable farmer, by her own female servant. It seems from the accounts we have been able to collect that the children of Mrs. Dormer had proceeded to a neighboring village called Ashaw, for the purpose of purchasing a splendid edition of the Bible, as an intended present to their mother. Mr. Dormer was engaged at some distance from the house inspecting the labors of his workmen, upon some new lands he had purchased. The unhappy victim, Mrs. Dormer, and her murderer remained at home in the house.—This servant girl had been for a considerable time in the family, and notwithstanding that she evinced a reserved and sometimes sullen disposition she obtained a large portion of the family's favor. In about an hour, or more after the departure of the daughters some of them returned, and entering the house inquired for their mother, at the same time bringing with them the intended gift.—"Your mother!" replied the girl with apparent amazement "why she went out almost immediately after you left the house."

For the moment this answer gave satisfaction, and particularly so from the peculiarity of tone with which the servant delivered it. The children were about to retire, but one of them the eldest daughter seemed suddenly to view drops of blood upon the kitchen while at the moment the servant stood with a mop near them, as tho' she had been washing them away. "What blood is that?" said the affrighted daughter. "Oh!" replied the girl

"nothing but the marks of which your mother and m been killing." In an insta of the daughters screame there was blood upon th stairs! "nothing but the marks of a chicken which your mother and me have just been killing." In an instant, another of the daughters screamed out, that there was blood upon the bed-room stairs! Horror filled each countenance; the undisturbed yet stern countenance of the servant almost forbade suspicion; but this was quickly removed by an exclamation from her of "Gracious God! I hope she has not done herself bodily injury." The danghters rushed to their mother's bed room, when shocking to relate, they beheld their beloved parent dead, and weltering in blood, with her head nearly severed from her body.—Her face, breast, and limbs, were cut and mangled most dreadfully.—The horror excited by such an exhibition and event may be conceived. A general cut-cry was heard, and all joined in the lamentation except the wretched servant who stood unmoved while the appalling scene rent the hearts of others. The cries of the family speedily brought together the surrounding neighborhood, by some of whom the girl was quickly secured.

All doubt was removed that she must have been the perpetrator of the horrid deed, but for some time she denied it, and continued unmoved by the dreadful spectacle. Being interrogated, however, for a considerable time, she at length, in a violent state of phrenzy and agitation, exclaimed, "It is of little use to conceal the murder, it was I who did it." The unhappy girl was after conveyed before a magistrate, to whom also (we understand) she confessed the bloody deed, and was finally committed to Warwick gaol to abide her trial.

The misery and wretchedness into which the family of Mr. Dormer has been thrown by this act of barbarity, is beyond description.—Mrs. Dormer was not only beloved as a wife and mother, but was universally regarded in her neighborhood for every virtue and good quality which could adorn her sex. The wretched perpetrator of the crime had to boast of an excellent service under the care of her murdered patroness. Not the remotest cause could be ascertained as likely to have influenced the servant girl to the commission of this almost unparallelled act of atrocity.

At his residence in Selin's Grove, Northumberland county, on Tuesday last, SIMON SNYDER, late governor of the state of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Snyder was a member of the convention, which gave the present form of government to Pennsylvania.

He fulfilled the various public offices to which he was elected, with approbation.

As speaker of the house of representation of the legislature of Pennsylvania, he presided for several years, with distinguished honor. He was cool, collected and affable.

As governor of the State, to which he was afterwards elected, he conducted himself with a firmness and dignity, which elicited the plaudits even of his political opponents—personal enemies, we believe, he had none.

This is written by one who opposed his election to the governor's chair, but who is now happy, even under the present mournful circumstances, to bear testimony to departed worth. [Freeman's Journal.

S. Drew, Merchant Tailor,

Removed from Fairfax-street to the corner of King and Columbus streets, and his prices falling,

RESPECTFULLY acquaints his customers and the citizens in general that he has removed as above, where he will study to give satisfaction. He has by him a small but well assorted stock of goods, which will be found on inspection to be of the best quality, the whole of which he wishes to sell low for cash, and as further inducements to purchasers he offers to cut out any goods, bought of him to any size or pattern gratis.

S. Drew aware, of the advantage a ready money business has over one where long credit is given, thinks that a distinction ought to be made in the prices in each case: and as the price of provisions are low at present, he is glad to be able to announce to those customers who will feel disposed to pay him ready money for his work, that he will reduce the price of making to them according to the present journeymen's wages; and to prevent any supposed imposition on the one hand or disatisfaction on the other he is willing to be governed by the printed regulations of prices by which the journeymen are paid in Alexandria.

N. B. Bread, flour, beef, groceries, liquors or any thing valuable taken in exchange for clothes.

S. Drew has this day opened a tavern in the same house, where he has laid in a supply of Philadelphia and the district porter and ale, together with liquors of the best quality, and he feels confident that he shall be able to give satisfaction to all who will please to favor him with a call.—He is fitting up his house for the accommodation of boarders, travellers, &c. and from its central situation, good beds and stabling, together with other requisites, he presumes that it will be found a convenient establishment.

Was Committed,

TO the jail for the county of Alexandria on the 3d inst. as a runaway, a negro man called BEN HENDERSON, supposed to be the property of George Thornton, of King George county. The said negro is about 50 years of age; 5 feet 6 inches high; bald head; and a shoemaker by trade. The owner is desired to come prove property, pay charges, and take him away, otherwise he will be disposed of as the law directs.

ANDW. ROUNSAVELL,

september 8 Jailor.

100 Dollars Reward.

RAN away on the 28th of April, from the farm of the subscriber, in Dogue Neck, Fairfax Co. Virginia, negro HARRY, aged about twenty three years, about five feet ten inches high; very black, well built, has a considerable impediment in his speech, when spoken to evinces much confusion, and replies almost unintelligibly: had on when he left home, a much worn suit of domestic cloth. I have every reason to believe that he is endeavoring to pass for a free man, and as such went off in some of the bay craft during the late fishing season. All masters of vessels are forewarned from harboring or taking into their employ said negro, under penalty of having the law rigidly enforced against them. I will give twenty dollars, if taken in the county of Fairfax, or district of Columbia; if beyond that distance, the above reward, provided he is secured in jail so that I get him again. WM. MASON.

Charles County, Md. June 1.

The editors of the National Intelligencer and Baltimore Federal Gazette will insert the above until forbid, and send their accounts to Port Tobacco for payment.

June 11 tf

100 Dollars Reward.

I WILL give the above reward to any person who will return to my possession, negro LAWRENCE, who assumes the sirname of FENWICK. This fellow left my farm, on the Wicomico river, in Charles county, Md. on the 6th July, in consequence of his own outrageous conduct towards my overseer. He is a negro of a fine erect figure, good features, asmooth black skin, rather above the middle stature, of a youthful appearance for one of thirty years of age, and of great plausibility and natural smartness. His ears grow remarkably close to his head, and on the inside of his lower lip he has a white mark or spot. I purchased him 4 years ago of the estate of Mrs. P. H. Courts, of this county. I am led (by circumstances which have come to my knowledge since he absconded,) to believe that he will endeavor to make his way to King George county, Va.; should he not take this route, he will probably be met with in the District of Columbia, or in the upper counties of this state, on his way to Pennsylvania. I apprehend he will change his name, and if committed to jail, refuse to state to whom he belongs, as the misconduct which preceded his departure, & his absconding, have all appeared since to have been premeditated. He took all his clothes with him, of which he had a large number; among them—a new bearskin over-coat, a long close-bodied blue coat, a pair of striped jean pantaloons, one or more white waistcoats, besides many articles of coarse cloathing; these, however, he will probably exchange, or sell them for cash to defray his travelling expenses.

I will give the above reward to any person who will bring him home to me, or FIFTY DOLLARS if confined in jail, and notice given me, so that I recover him.—Should he be taken out of the state, I will also pay all reasonable costs and charges which may attend the bringing him home.

West Hatton, near Allen's Fresh Post-Office, Charles county, Maryland.
